Malcolm Jenkins

PROFILE

Fire Investigation Specialists Ltd. is a well-established company founded in 2010. Our principal investigator, Malcolm Jenkins, is an experienced fire investigator, instructor and assessor who has conducted hundreds of fire investigations. These comprise a diverse range of incidents, including deliberate and accidental fires, non-terrorist explosions and fatal fires in domestic, commercial and industrial premises.

Malcolm has experience preparing and presenting evidence for the civil and criminal justice systems. He has managed a fire investigation team and an arson task force. He is a qualified fire safety inspecting officer with an in-depth knowledge and understanding of the fire service and its procedures and experience in identifying areas of training need and procedural failure.

Malcolm has produced many fire investigation reports for use as evidence in criminal and civil proceedings for prosecution and defence purposes. He has presented evidence as an expert witness at Magistrates and Crown courts and Coroner's inquests. He has provided practical and classroom-based fire and arson investigation training to fire officers, police, crime scene investigators and PCSO's. He has spoken at local and national conferences on the subjects of fire investigation and arson reduction.

On retiring from the fire service after 31 years. He formed a limited company specialising in fire investigation, criminal and civil case review and defence work. He worked at Gardiner Fire Investigation as a forensic fire investigator for five years. In addition to this, he provides forensic fire investigation instruction for Gardiner Associates Training and Research (GATR) and is an assessor for the Skills for Justice Awards Level 2 Introduction to Fire Investigation and Level 5 Certificate in Fire Investigation.
